2010 Dessert Rules and Regulations

GENERAL INFORMATION

Each participant shall provide six (6) portions for presentation to the judges.

Turn-In is Cook's Choice.

Team's can use what they make the entry in/on, as their turn-in container.

The team's entry number MUST be included with the dessert category entry at turn-in.

Contest entries without a team entry number will not be judged.

There is No Garnish Rule.

There are two (2) categories, On-Site and Off-Site.

Turn in time is 10:00am May 8, 2010 for both categories.

Both will be judged as stated below.

JUDGING

Each contest entry is judged on: (1) Taste (2) Texture (3) Appearance.

Participants are judged using a number system.

The low end of the number system is 2 and the upper end of the number system is 9.

Each participant's score is tallied and totaled.

The top 3 places are determined by the top 3 scores.

OVERALL SCORE TIE-BREAKER

Tie Breaker Number One: In case of a Tie in Overall Score, the higher score in the Taste Category determines the higher place finish.

Tie Breaker Number Two: In case of a Tie in the Taste Category Score, the higher score in the Tenderness Category determines the higher place finish.

Tie Breaker Number Three: In case of a Tie in the Appearance Category Score, a coin flip determines the higher place finish.
